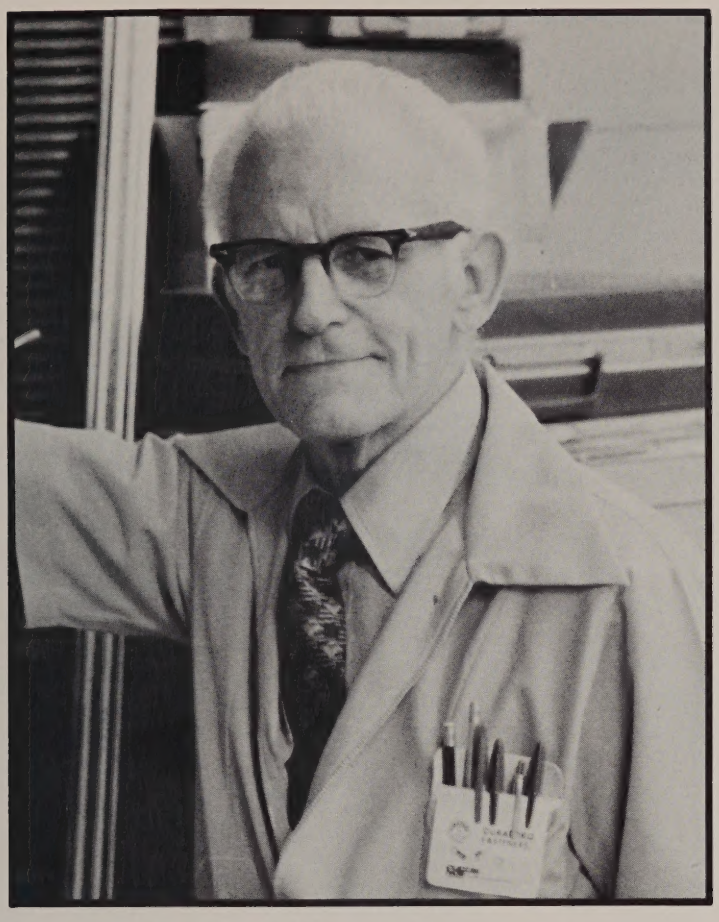
Dedicated to —

Mrs. Esther G. Turner

Mrs. Turner has been a dedicated cosmetology instructor whose work expresses her sincere interest in young people. She has a comprehensive outlook as an educator. Helping each student to achieve personal growth as well as new knowledge is very important to her. She has been an inspiration to many, and she appreciates those who return to say so. When Mrs. Turner is not teaching, she is gardening, hooking rugs, attending school sports events, crocheting afghans, and enjoying even younger people — her grandchildren.

We Will Remember —



Mr. Felix L. Racicot

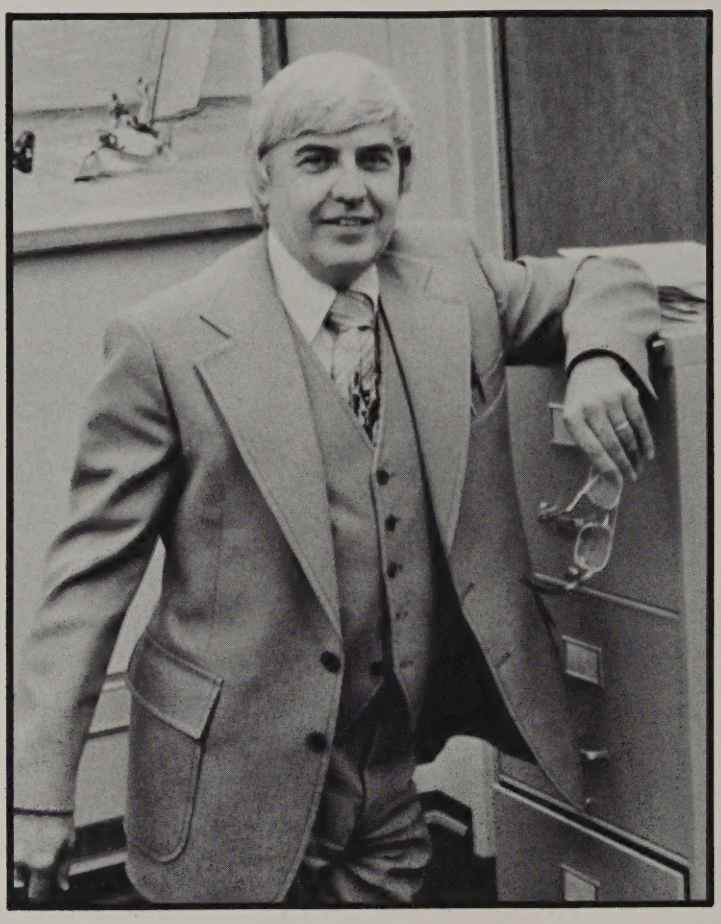
2/11/09 — 4/4/78

'To lose the earth you know, for greater knowing;
To lose the life you have, for greater life;
To leave the friends you loved, for greater loving;
To find a land more kind than home, more large than earth —

'Whereon the pillars of this earth are founded,
Toward which the conscience of the world is tending —
A wind is rising, and the rivers flow.'

— Thomas Wolfe

A Message to the Class of '78



Well here you are a graduate, on your own . . . no more instructors or administrators telling you what to do, just the boss! If you have everything together, and use what you were taught, you won't have any trouble. Don't get the idea that your training and learning has stopped, all experiences are learning.

Remember, use the training received at Bay Path as a foundation for all future learning experiences. Approach all problems with an open mind and a willingness to continue learning. Have a full life and return to Bay Path class reunions successful.

ONE DAMN TOUGH KID

AUBURN — He fooled them. He fooled them all. The last time that Bay Path defenseman Gary La Plante had put on his skates, for a game, it was to help hand South County Hockey League rival Grafton a 6-4 loss. It was a delicious win for the Minutemen, the defending league champions. They had come back from a 3-2 deficit with four goals in the last period.

Four days later, Christmas Day, La Plante lay unconscious in a wrecked automobile for eight hours, bleeding and numb. He still does not remember what happened, only waking up in a hospital bed six days later. They estimate that his car hit a utility pole head on at about midnight. No one found him until 8 a.m. Christmas day.

There was all kinds of talk. That it would be a month before he came out of his coma. That he would never have use of his right side. That he would never again be able to speak.

La Plante, the toughest kid on the Bay Path team, was on the operating table for 7½ hours for a blood clot on his brain. More emergency surgery was needed when the membrane around the brain broke and he started leaking spinal fluid through his nose. Every bone in his head except for his nose was broken.

It was easy — too easy — to write Gary La Plante off. "He was doing too much," said his hockey coach, Jay Lussier. "He was studying culinary arts, working in a bakery, coming to practice or games, and then driving to Watertown to see his girlfriend."

The effect on the Minuteman team was "like having our hearts cut out," said Lussier. He explained, "He was our leader this year. He was the team's spiritual leader, an all-star defenseman. He was going to eat the league up this year."

La Plante would settle for eating a steak up this year now, he says. He was fed intravenously for three weeks after the accident, and has been on a liquid diet since.

So it was a Gary La Plante with 48 pounds off of a once-sturdy frame that walked into the Bay Path dressing room before last night's hockey game with Southbridge. He had been released from the hospital earlier Tuesday and informed Lussier that he would be there.

Lussier, however, didn't tell his players. And when La Plante hobbled in, assisted by a cane on his right side, "Their eyes got big and wide, like they were going to pop out." La Plante said.

They had pulled the wires out of his jaw last Friday, but not the permanent ones under his forehead, or the braces that were helping to reform his gums. "Wires are holding my whole head together," he said, managing a smile.

There had to be a storybook ending, and there was. La Plante held the game puck in his hand — his right hand — after Bay Path had outplayed the more-talented Pioneers, beating them, 5-1. Fittingly, it was an inspired defensive effort, with sophomore goaltender Marty Kolodziejczak turning in a spectacular performance in goal and the Minutemen putting it away with three last-period goals.

They almost left him behind in the celebration. Well, not really, because when the rejoicing Minutemen returned to their locker room and found their captain wasn't there, they went out and almost literally pulled him in to savor what he had inspired — the biggest Bay Path win of the season.

"It was really amazing," said Lussier in the hall later. "They had been saying he'd be in for at least two more weeks, but in the last 48 hours he just got ready and they let him go. It's a good thing that he's as strong a kid as he is."

Gary La Plante fooled them all.

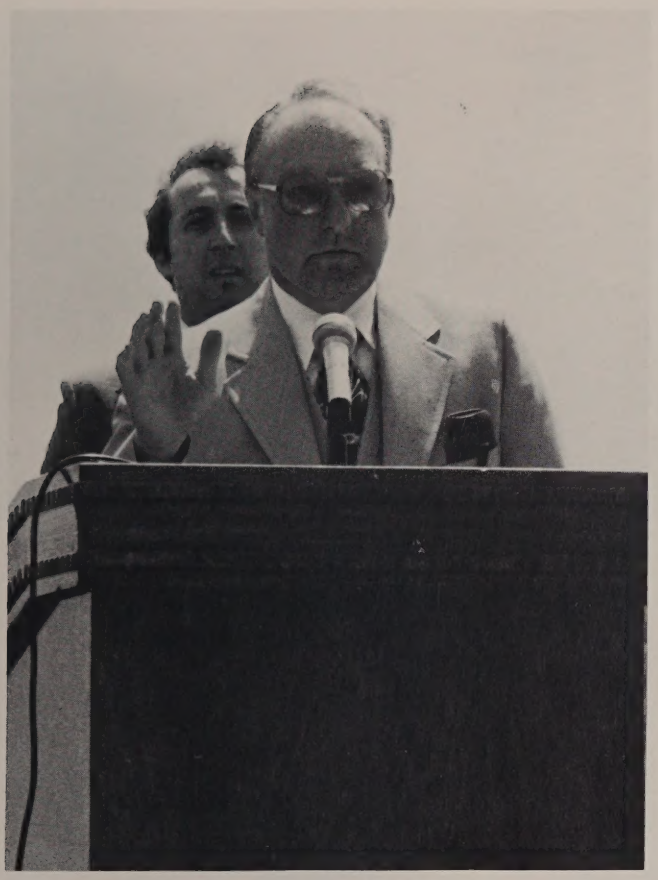
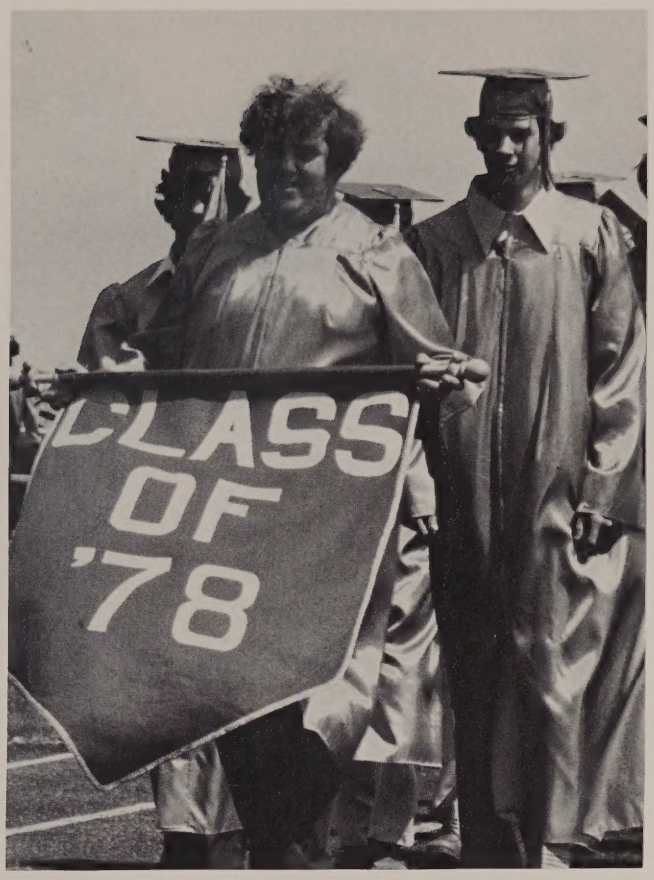
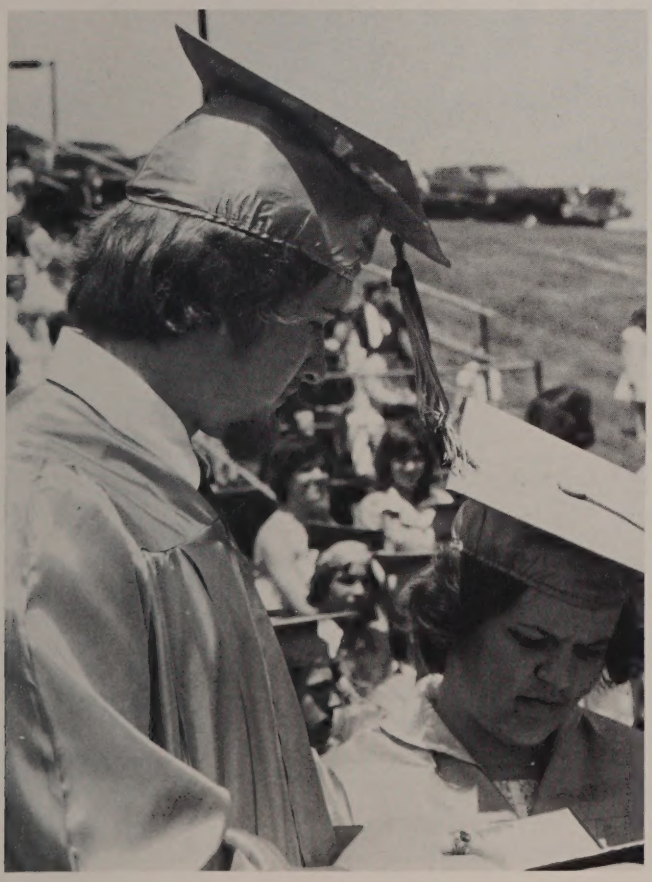
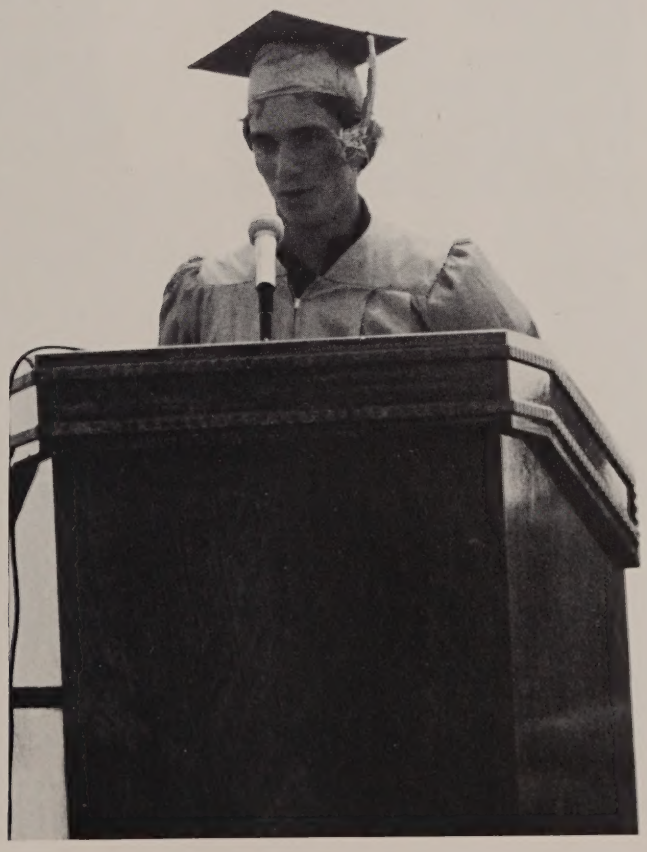
When you are old and grey and full of sleep,



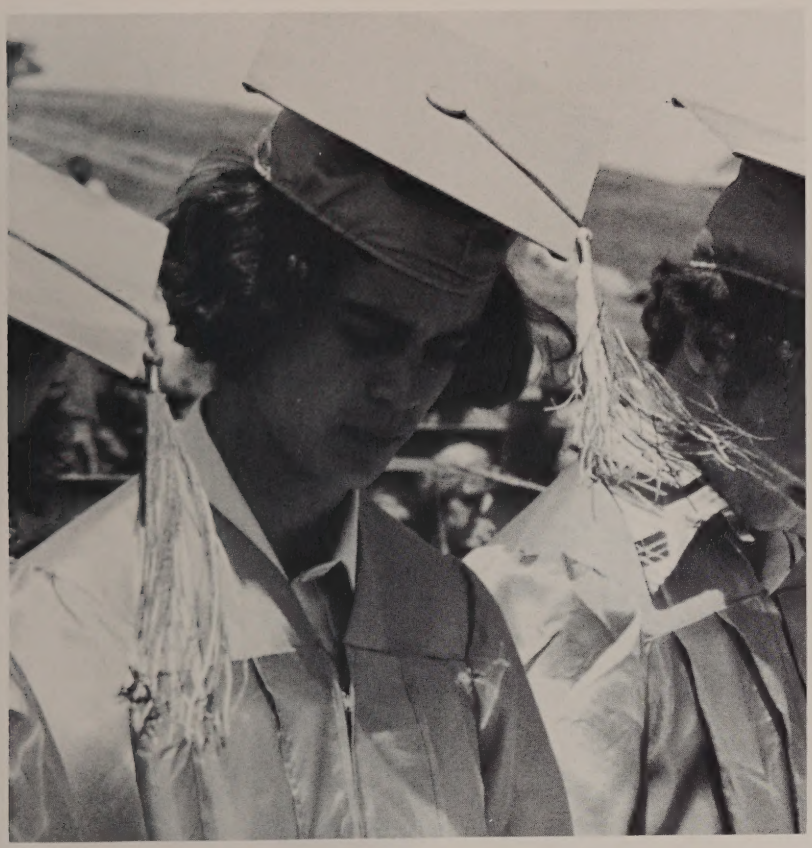


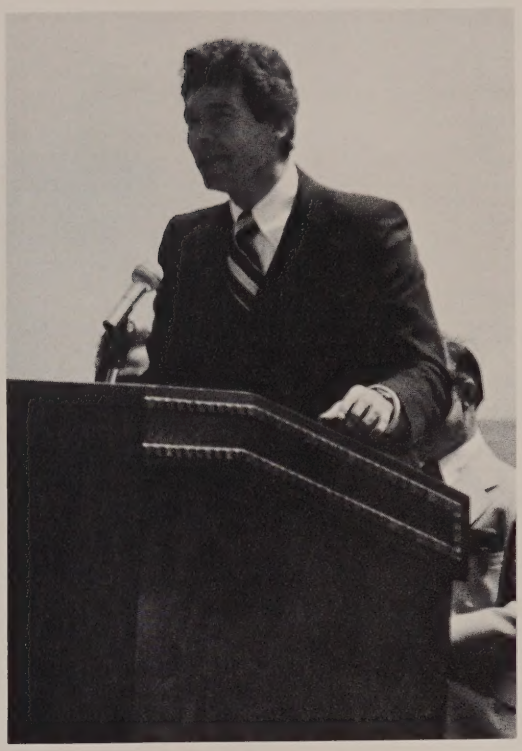




And nodding by the fire, take down this book,

And slowly read, and dream of the soft look





Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep — Yeats

Your living is determined not so much by what life brings to you as by the attitude you bring to life;
not so much by what happens to you as by the way your mind looks at what happens.
Circumstances and situations do color life,
but you have been given the mind
to choose what the color will be.
